Expert Team for Spine Care

When you're suffering from back pain, you want relief, and you want to know that the doctor you turn to is well-versed in the most advanced, effective, and proven techniques.

That's why your first call should be to Cincinnati Spine Institute, one of the area's oldest and most respected spine care practices. At Cincinnati Spine Institute, fellowship-trained and board-certified spine specialists provide leading-edge, cost-effective treatments for all conditions affecting spine health—for children as well as adults.

Personalized Approach

"We take tremendous pride in the personalized approach we provide to each patient," says Dr. John Roberts. "People come to us in pain, so we schedule appointments promptly and don't make patients wait long once they're in our office. When we evaluate their spine problems, we don't just look at their imaging studies to arrive at our recommendations; we listen to our patients and discuss their problems with them."

While these caring spine specialists are

“ The spine specialists at Cincinnati Spine Institute diagnosed my degenerative disc disease when others missed it. Dr. Roberts felt I was a good candidate for fusion surgery, but several friends tried to discourage me, saying, 'You'll never be the same.' They were right: Thanks to Cincinnati Spine Institute, I'll never hurt the way I did before! I can train and ride my quarter horses again, and I can walk as far as I want without any trouble. **”
